

Please don't lessen Indiana's Telephone privacy act. It is an annoyance to answer the phone and find solicitors on the other end. After working or being at school all day, families want uninterrupted time together without the constant disruption of telemarketers or unwanted phone calls. Sincerely, Laurie Bailey